Our 2023 Faith Filled Financial Commitment Campaign Begins

Ray McColgan, Stewardship Chair

Oktoberfest marks the start of our Faith Filled Financial Commitment Campaign for 2023. I hope you have your tickets and are ready to attend on Friday, October 7, starting at 5:30 p.m. in Harvard Hall. There's no charge. (Deadline for reservations was September 29. Sorry, no tickets available at the door.)

Raising money to fund the operations of our cathedral is an important ministry of the cathedral, just like our other ministries — youth, music, outreach, worship, formation, pastoral care, and so much more.

Last year, we surpassed our Faith Filled Financial Commitment goal. We hope to repeat that success by exceeding this year's goal of $900,000. This represents an increase of 3.2 percent over the current year. We know you have felt the pinch of inflation at the grocery store and the gas pump.

So has the Cathedral.

Last year's theme was "Every Perfect Gift." This year we celebrate the return to being together in person with our theme "ABC: Abundance, Blessing, Commitment."

You will receive your Faith Filled Financial Commitment mailing the week of October 10. It will include graphic information on how our budget allocates your pledge dollars. It will include a Commitment Card, which you can mail back to the Cathedral, place in the offering plate, or drop off at the office. An even easier way is to use the online pledge link on our web page at www.spcathedral.org/give-abc.

We urge you to make your commitment by Ingathering Sunday, November 6. (It will save us — and you — a lot of follow-up phone calls.) Then mark your calendar for our Thanks-a-Brunch on Sunday, November 13, after the 10:15 a.m. service, when we'll gather for this festive complimentary meal, fellowship and fun, and a chance to celebrate our many blessings of time, talent, and treasure. Watch for details about how to RSVP for the brunch.

Your financial commitments are the lifeblood of the Cathedral. You are the roots that provide stability and allow the leaves (our ministries) to grow and help us achieve our Stewardship Pledge: to trust God, to serve God, and to honor God with all we are and all we have.

Making and Fulfilling Your Faith Filled Financial Commitment

Ray McColgan, Stewardship Chair

Making your Faith Filled Financial Commitment — and fulfilling it — are closely linked but are actually two separate things.

Making a Commitment: Our Faith Filled Financial Commitment campaign begins with Oktoberfest on Friday, October 7. In the mailing following that event, we will ask you to make a Faith Filled Financial Commitment to our Cathedral. The commitment can be made on the Commitment Card enclosed in the mailing and returned to the Cathedral either by mail or in the offering plate. An easier way to do this is online at spcathedral.org/give-abc.

When we have all the commitments — Ingathering Day is Sunday, November 6 — the Chapter can make budgetary decisions based on our projected income. This is why it is so important that we know our parishioners' intentions. Making Faith Filled Financial Commitments is the lifeblood of the Cathedral.

Fulfilling a Commitment: The next step is to decide how you plan to fulfill that commitment. You can request envelopes for weekly contributions of check or cash. Or you can use some form of direct deposit. In terms of labor and accounting time — yours and ours! — direct deposit is certainly the best route.

You can set up a direct deposit via credit card, debit card, or bank withdrawal. This is done through our Realm website. Simply navigate to the web page (spcathedral.org), then click on “give” on the upper right and then on “give today.” From there, just follow the prompts to indicate the amount of your monthly or weekly commitment and how frequently you wish to give. You can also use this direct link to set up direct online giving: onrealm.org/spcathedral/-/form/give/now

Some parishioners like to do lump-sum payments through an IRA or appreciated stocks or bonds. If you qualify, this can have great tax-saving advantages.

For more information or help with setting these up, feel free to contact me, Ray McColgan, your stewardship chair, at rmccolgan@me.com. Or leave a phone message at the front desk (727-822-4173) and I will return your call.

Please know how much we appreciate your Faith Filled Financial Commitment and your fulfillment of that commitment. You are indeed the life blood of the Cathedral.

Jazz Vespers for All Hallows' Eve: From the Scary to the S'mores, Fun for All

The Episcopal Book of Occasional Services contains a liturgy for All Hallows' Eve, along with some of the creepiest passages in the Bible: Saul's visit to the Witch of Endor in I Samuel ... Ezekiel's vision of the Valley of Dry Bones ... and the War in Heaven as told in Revelation. Witches summoning ghosts, living skeletons, and dragons fighting angels! Bring your sense of humor to this liturgy, at 5 p.m. Sunday, October 30.

We are excited to welcome back a jazz quartet to liven up our service.

Come dressed as your favorite saint, or wear a Halloween costume.

After the service, we will gather in the garden for treats and s'mores around fire pits. The young and young at heart are all invited!

Canoes pull into a circle for a celebration of the Eucharist in 2021.

Canoeucharist Is Postponed Because of Hurricane Ian

Our annual Canoeucharist, scheduled for Sunday, October 2, has been postponed because of Hurricane Ian. Please watch for a new date in the weeks ahead.

When the Canoeucharist is rescheduled, all will be welcome to join us at the Topwater Kayak Outpost, opposite the Dog Park Beach at Fort DeSoto Park. We'll paddle the waters where Tampa Bay meets the Gulf of Mexico, then circle our canoes and kayaks and celebrate a Eucharist. Cost: $20/canoe (fits two or three people).

We'll post information about the new date on the website (spcathedral.org) and in the Friday e-mail blast. Keep those paddles handy!

Multiplying the Chances for Unity

If you are tired of the anxiety, frustration, and fear that pervade your connections with other people, both online and in real life, authors Sarah Stewart Holland and Beth Silvers want you to know one thing: You are not alone.

In their book Now What? How to Move Forward When We're Divided (About Basically Everything), they will help you understand the powerful connections you have with other people on a personal, community-based, national, and even international level. Then they show you how to:

- * engage your family with a spirit of curiosity
- * listen closely to the anxieties and fears of your friends
- * explore shared values within your community
- * understand your work as a citizen in a diverse country

Now What? Book Discussion

Wednesdays, November 2 and 9

Pot-luck dinner from 5:30-6:15 p.m.

Discussion from 6:15-7:30 p.m.

* hold lightly those things that are beyond your control around the world

We'll unpack what they have to say on two Wednesday evenings in November, starting with a potluck supper followed by a vigorous discussion.

Register at spcathedral.org/beloved-community or email Hillary Peete (hpeete@spcathedral.com) to indicate your interest.

The status quo isn't working. If you long to be a peacemaker and a positive influence in your spheres, Now What? is your door to a future that is characterized by hope, love, and connection — despite our differences. Buy your book now and start reading so you're ready for this compelling discussion in November!

We'll HONOR OUR ACOLYTES at the 10:15 a.m. service on Sunday, October 2. Join us in recognizing these young people and adults for their reverent hearts and steady hands in worship each week.

Messy Church: Dinosaurs!

Thursday, October 13

Dinner from 5:30-6 p.m.

Activities from 6-7:15 p.m.

Families with kids ages 4 through 5th grade are invited to learn about God through science, scripture, art, movement, and some messy fun.

Each month we explore a different scripture or theme from the Bible and tackle Big Questions together. This month it's dinosaurs! Please RSVP to Hillary Peete (hpeete@spcathedral.com) to help us plan activities and dinner.

Bad Things, Good People, and God: Confronting the Ultimate Question

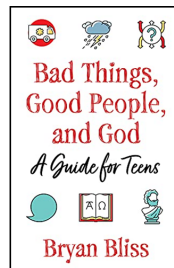

Episcopal Youth Community

5-7 p.m. October 9, 16, and 23

For three Sundays, our EYC (grades 6-12) will ask why bad things happen to good people and will look for answers to this big question of faith. This is not a book study; it's a multi-part discussion inspired by Bad Things, Good People, and God: A Guide for Teens. Author Bryan Bliss frames the discussion this way:

“Just because there isn’t an easy answer (any answer?) to the problem of evil – why bad things happen – doesn’t mean we need to live in a state of constant anxiety or dread. It’s not an overstatement to say this is the biggest question of faith. It’s also a question that all of us must wrestle with as theologians. Yes, theologians. Because what you have to say matters. Your theology matters. Your view of the world reveals another glimmer of truth – some small answer – to these big questions. Quick warning: by the end, you’re going to have more questions.

It’s inevitable. But the questions will make things a little clearer. Are you ready?”

Welcome, Noah!

Please congratulate Michelle and Shawn Thomas on the birth of Noah Samuel on September 14. Michelle is the Cathedral Administrator and Associate for Christian Formation. She will be on maternity leave through December. Please keep the Thomas family in your prayers.

Quilts Will Tell the Story of Black History in the American West

A new exhibit at the James Museum of Western and Wildlife Art, the first of its kind, explores the path of Black history in the American West with a timeline of original pictorial quilts.

Our Becoming Beloved Community group invites everyone to meet for lunch and then take a docent-led tour of the exhibit on Sunday, October 16. See the box for details including registration.

Dispelling the myth that Black people in the Old West were mostly cowboys, Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West shows rich diversity in their occupations and achievements in society, religion, education, and the arts.

"Quilts and quilt-making are important to America and Black culture in particular because the art form was historically one of the few mediums accessible to marginalized groups to tell their own story, to provide warmth for their families, and to empower them with a voice through cloth," says Dr. Carolyn Mazloomi, curator, historian, and artist.

Join the Cathedral At the FAST Annual Assembly

The Pinellas County chapter of FAST — Faith and Action for Strength Together — will gather at 7 p.m. October 24 in its Annual Assembly to choose the problem areas on which it will focus for the next year.

The group will hear updates on the issues FAST is currently tackling and testimonies from those experiencing those problems. Then members will vote on what to work on, or continue to work on, in 2023.

During this assembly the Cathedral will officially sign the covenant and will be welcomed into FAST as a member congregation. The Chapter voted in May to align with FAST, which has been active in Pinellas County since 2004 and includes worshipping communities of many denominations and traditions.

Please join us as we celebrate this step in the Cathedral's ministry in our community.

The assembly is at First Baptist Church of St. Petersburg, 1900 Gandy Blvd. N.

What is FAST?

Faith and Action for Strength Together (FAST) is a justice-ministry organization of 50 religious congregations throughout Pinellas County that band together to create positive change in our community. FAST is a congregation-based 501(c)3 non-profit whose purpose is to train community residents from diverse congregations to work together to identify root causes of community problems and take action on those problems. Through FAST, diverse people come together to powerfully address the needs in their own communities. Learn more at fast-pinellas.org.

Please call the office (727-822-4173) to let us know when you are hospitalized or ill at home. Because of privacy laws, the only way we know you are ill is if you tell us. And please let us know when good health has been restored.

Visit our intercessory prayer web page (spcathedral.org/prayer), where you can find guidance on how to pray; view a prayer list that is updated weekly; send in prayer requests; or request a pastoral visit.

Consecration of the Coadjutor

Our coadjutor-elect was ordained and consecrated September 24 at Van Wezel Hall in Sarasota. The Right Rev. Dr. Douglas F. Scharf is the 1,149th bishop in the Episcopal Church and will become the sixth bishop diocesan in December. The Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry, was the chief consecrator on a day of festivity and joy for the Diocese of Southwest Florida.

Bishops gather around the coadjutor-elect to invite God to "make Douglas a bishop in your church."

Evensong for St. James

The Cathedral Chamber Choir will offer Choral Evensong for the Feast of St. James of Jerusalem at 5 p.m. Sunday, October 23.

The liturgy is the Evensong in A, composed by Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924), an Irish composer, music teacher, and conductor who is considered one of the seminal figures of the British musical renaissance in the late 19th Century. Among his pupils were rising composers whose fame went on to surpass his own, such as Gustav Holst and Ralph Vaughan

The Anthem is Parry's "I Was Glad."

James the Just is another name for James of Jerusalem, one of Jesus's four brothers. James was an early leader of the Church in Jerusalem in the years after the death of Jesus. It is believed he was martyred in 62 or 69 AD by being stoned to death by the Pharisees.

An organ prelude is at 4:45 p.m. Dwight Thomas is organist and director. A freewill offering is taken.

Help Others Celebrate with a Hearty Thanksgiving Dinner

The Outreach Committee will collect items for Thanksgiving baskets for families at Campbell Park Elementary School and Florida Resurrection House during October and the first two weeks of November.

Items needed for the baskets:

- * Boxed mashed potatoes
- * Canned green beans
- * Cranberry sauce
- * Boxed stuffing mix
- * $35 Publix or Walmart gift certificates for turkeys

The date and time for assembling the bags for Thanksgiving week delivery and our plans for helping with the Peterborough Apartments community Thanksgiving meal will appear in the November issue of Crosstown.

October Service Opportunity:

We will assemble emergency bags for residents of Peterborough Apartments during coffee hour after the 10:15 a.m. service on Sunday, October 9. Look for us in Harvard Hall and come lend a hand!

Book Study, Painting Workshop Will Explore Art, Beauty, Faith

Canon Ethan Cole will lead a book group via Zoom this month that culminates in a live painting workshop.

Art and Faith by Makoto Fujimura reflects on the role of art and beauty in the Christian vocation of engaging the world and transforming culture. He writes, “Art making, to me, is a discipline of awareness, prayer, and praise. Imagination gives us wings to create, but it is through Christ’s tears and the invitation to the feast of God that we can be partakers of the New Creation.”

After we read this book together and reflect on creativity as a spiritual principle and integral part of our faith, local artist Bruce Kotchey will lead us in a one-day painting workshop, open to participants of all skill levels or none. The workshop will also be open to those who don’t wish to participate in the book study.

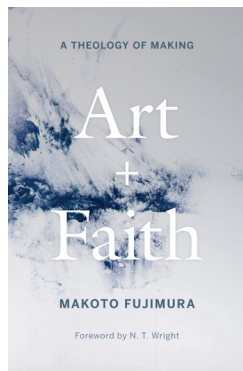

We have four copies of the book available for purchase ($18). Speak to Hillary Peete if you want to buy a copy.

You can see Fujimura’s own art here:

<http://www.makotofujimura.com>

The class meets from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. via Zoom on October 6, 13, 20, and 27. The painting workshop starts at 10 a.m. Saturday, November 5.

Register at spcathedral.org/book-study.

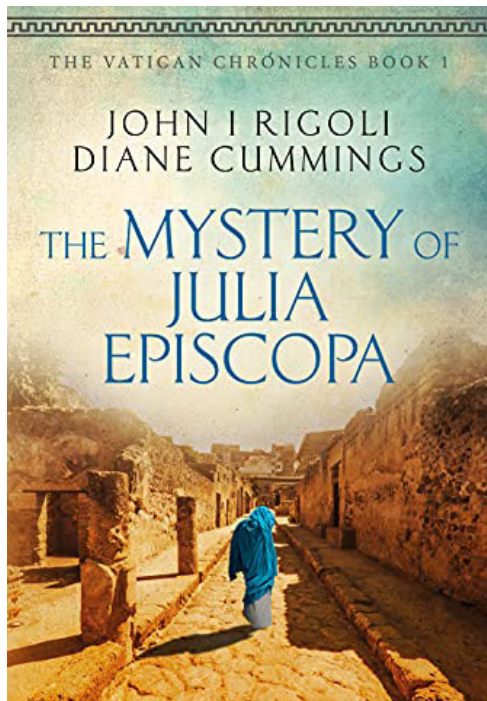

Gift Cards Give an Extra Boost to Campbell Park Teachers

Thank you to Cathedral members who donated Walmart gift cards or checks totaling $1,725 to Campbell Park Elementary. This will sponsor 11.5 classrooms at $150 per classroom. The Outreach Committee allocated $2,925 to sponsor the remaining classrooms.

The gift cards are used throughout the year to purchase needed supplies and equipment.

Book Club Reschedules Discussion of September Choice: Habemus Episcopa? Is a Female Roman Bishop Possible?

St. Peter's Book Club canceled its September meeting because of Hurricane Ian. They'll discuss their September book choice at their next meeting, at 6:30 p.m. on October 25 in the Chapter Room.

That book is The Mystery of Julia Episcopa: A Tale of Ancient and Modern Rome (The Vatican Chronicles, Book 1), by Diane Cummings and John Rigoli (295 pages). Linda Earle is the presenter.

Two contemporary classical archaeologists are tasked with advising the pope on the historical legacy of women in the early Christian period. They find an ancient parchment in the Vatican archives that suggests a woman may once have been a Roman Catholic bishop. They face pressure from a venomous Vatican power structure, but silence would betray the teachings of this first-century Roman noblewoman who gave her life for the teachings of Jesus.

If you're unable to meet in person, we offer a Zoom option. More information is available at spcathedral.org/book-club. No need to have read the book; our lively discussion may prompt you to do so.

New to the Cathedral? You're invited to COFFEE WITH THE CLERGY from 9 to 9:50 a.m. Sunday, October 9, in the Chapter Room, hosted by our Canon for Congregational Life, the Rev. Ethan Cole. Come learn more about the Cathedral and let us get to know you.

PROMISE FULFILLED!

Family Promise Is Back, Working with Homeless Clients

Denis M. Sousa, Executive Director, Family Promise

At long last, there is wonderful news: Family Promise has opened its doors and is serving our homeless clients.

Fourteen families have walked through our doors and we successfully fulfilled their immediate needs in connecting with community resources and in preventing homelessness.

We have prevented two families from succumbing to homelessness since opening day. It is certainly more advantageous to keep children in their homes by prevention than to rehouse them once they are homeless.

We are still working hard on opening our shelter operations on October 2, one month earlier than expected. This is an incredible feat! The Congregational Care

Committee has been working hard in getting out the word and speaking to congregations to get them involved.

I had an opportunity to speak to an evening Bible study group and their excitement about our mission was encouraging. Now that the community is seeing movement in our mission to re-engage, there is no stopping us!

Services to clients have been on hold since late 2018 while the board worked toward financial stability and leadership development and dealt with the limitations imposed by the pandemic.

September was Family Promise of Pinellas County's Homeless Prevention Month. Check out our website to see how you can help: www.fppinellas.org.

What Is Family Promise?

Family Promise of Pinellas County is part of a national nonprofit organization serving homeless children and their parents. They are housed at participating churches, moving from church to church each week.

Four times a year they receive their meals and lodging for a week at Palm Lake Christian Church, with St. Peter's support. They spend days at the Day Center at Central Christian Church, 6201 22nd Ave. N, where they seek jobs, social services, and permanent housing.

Want to know more? Please contact Karen Amundrud (amundrudk@yahoo.com) for details. Learn more at fppinellas.org.

Cathedral Book Talks: The End.

Our Cathedral Book Talks have come to an end.

When we started the series 11 years ago there wasn't much in the way of book/author activities around town. That landscape has changed considerably. Tombolo Books offers such a robust calendar of author appearances, both live and online, that the niche seems to be filled to overflowing. And there are the book talks at the James Museum, at the activities put on by Keep St. Pete Lit, and elsewhere around town. Plus our own St. Peter's Book Club!

We're glad that our book talks were able to fulfill a need and lead the way, and we encourage you to support the excellent programming others are offering.

Take Me Out to the Ball Game

It was Baseball with the Bishops, plural, this year as our departing bishop and our bishop-elect joined with Episcopalians all around the diocese for the Tampa Bay Rays game Sept. 2 at Tropicana Field. Lots of Cathedral members were there to cheer the team on as the Rays trounced the Yankees 9-0. Photos by MICHELLE THOMAS and LINDSEY NICKEL.

Around the Cathedral

Benison Work Day

As we prepare for the fall/winter growing season, Benison Farm invites you come pull the weeds and tend the chickens. The community garden, sponsored by St. Thomas' and St. Augustine's Episcopal Churches, is at 2920 26th Ave. S. Our regular monthly workday is from 9 to 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 15. See you there!

Rowdies' Last Home Game

We've got tickets to the Rowdies game at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, October 15. It's the last home game of the year and there'll be fireworks after the game. All welcome! Contact Hillary Peete (hpeete@spcathedral.com) to reserve your ticket.

For Your Health

Our Faith Community Nurse, Rita Sewell, continues to offer these services: blood-pressure clinic, 9-10 a.m. the first Sunday of the month in the Library; and consultations on health matters or mind-body-spirit issues, from 10 a.m. to noon most Thursdays at the Cathedral. E-mail Rita Sewell at nurse@spcathedral.com to make an appointment.

Feast Day Eucharists

In addition to our regular 12:05 p.m. Eucharist on Wednesdays, we now offer Holy Eucharist at 12:05 p.m. on Feast Days during the week. Those additional services this month are on October 18

(St. Luke, Evangelist); October 24 (St. James of Jerusalem, transferred); and October 28 (Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles). The full schedule of Feast Day Eucharists for the rest of the year is at spcathedral.org/services.

More on Afghan Refugee Summer School

A story in the September issue of Crosstown about the Afghan Refugee Summer School program supported by Westminster Communities failed to mention that six of the volunteer teachers are members of the Cathedral: Mimi Aangeenbrug, David and Nancy Kramer, David and Mary Jane Schenck, and Tallulah Taylor. At least two of the other volunteer teachers are also Episcopalians. All of the school classes took place at, and the teachers are residents of, Westminster Shores. You can read the full Tampa Bay Times story at tinyurl.com/2s4bzb9p.

'To Cause Greater Than Self': Bishop Curry on Queen Elizabeth

These are excerpts from Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's homily at a service September 21 at the National Cathedral honoring Queen Elizabeth II, who died September 8.

We have assembled in this sacred place to give God thanks for the life of

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, to give God thanks for a life that was given to service of others, to cause greater than self. We give God thanks that one such as her did walk among us.

Her Majesty in 1953, the year I was born, vowed that she would dedicate her life to the service of her people, and indeed, of humanity. And you know what? She kept her word. She kept her word. We are here to give God thanks that it is possible to serve and to keep your word.

As the Archbishop of Canterbury said at [Westminster] Abbey the other day, "She served out of her religious faith. She served and dedicated her life to God and God's service, seeking to follow in the footsteps of Jesus of Nazareth and His way of love as her way of life."

Dear friends, the God who loves Her Majesty, and receives her into the arms of that love, created each one of us out of that fountain of love. And we are at our best when we live in that love.

Darrow Elected to Diocesan Council

Please congratulate Chapter member Susan Darrow, who was elected in September as the representative of the St. Petersburg Deanery to Diocesan Council. Her election will be confirmed at the 54th annual Diocesan Convention on October 15.

The Diocesan Council is the board of directors for the corporation of the Diocese of Southwest Florida. It is responsible for the oversight of the work of the diocese, including finance, congregational development, property issues, diocesan policy, DaySpring and other matters concerning the fabric of the diocesan community.

Youth Confirmation Class Begins

Please pray for our new class of youth confirmands: Joel Burnsed, Elise Chandler, and Katherine Knippen. Their adult mentors are Randy Ramsey, Grace Lewis, and Jessica Curtis, respectively.

From now until next April, at the Great Vigil of Easter, these young people and their mentors will ask hard questions and dig deep for answers, pray, go on retreat, and learn about the basics of our faith and the books and documents that govern it.
